

“Amalfi Coast with Rossella” Cultural & Culinary Tour

June 29 to July 6, 2019

$4,399 per person (Double Occupancy)

Arriving to Villa Carpe Diem

On Saturday, transfers have been planned for you to be picked up from either the Naples airport or the Naples train station and have you on your way to Villa Carpe Diem by 3:30 PM. All travel arrangements need to be made accordingly, otherwise alternative methods will have to be arranged. Upon reaching the Villa, there will be some time for you to unpack and relax. On your first night at Villa you will be greeted with a welcome dinner designed especially for you by your host Rossella and prepared by our incredible chef.

Villa Carpe Diem

Prepare to be amazed as you overlook the mystical sea of the Siren Islands. Enjoy seven nights in Massa Lubrense, a cozy village on the hills of Sorrento. The villa has many amenities and is equipped with all the modern comforts. Villa Carpe Diem is surrounded by lush gardens and stunning views of Capri, Ischia, Procida, Naples, and Mt. Vesuvius. Yes the villa has WiFi.

“When Life Hands You Lemons, Make Limoncello”

Sunday - Today will be a day to relax and have your first cooking lesson with Rossella and our local Nonna. After breakfast, there will be some time for at the villa for a little r and f then a light lunch. Before tonight’s cooking lesson, there will be a Limoncello demonstration with lemons picked from the garden of the Villa. The evening will end with the delicious meal that you helped prepare.

“Life is Too Short for Bad Wine”

Monday - First, we will begin the day with a luscious breakfast, and then it is off to see the preparation of the backbone of most authentic Italian dishes, PASTA! We will visit an artisanal Pasta factory in Gragnano where some of the best pasta in the world is made. Next, we will take a ride to a winery near Mt. Vesuvius for a wine tasting and a bite to eat under a gazebo. A week in Campania wouldn’t be complete without witnessing the effect that Mt. Vesuvius had on the region. We will visit the Pompeii ruins including a private 90 minute guided tour. On our way back to the villa we will stop at a local Osteria for a traditional family style dinner.

“There’s Always Room for Pizza”

Tuesday - The region of Campania is the birthplace of Pizza and you just cannot go home without having learned the art of making Pizza. On this day, you will learn how to make and bake your own Pizza in the wood oven at the villa while enjoying the terrace facing Capri and Mt. Vesuvius. Spend the afternoon in Sorrento before dinner at La Conca, an enchanting seafood restaurant on the Sorrento coast.

“Say Cheese!!!”

Wednesday - Following breakfast, today we will make our way to the water buffalo farm Tenuta Varnulo to observe the art of making buffalo mozzarella. There will be plenty of sampling of the finished products during an exquisite lunch at the farm, including gelato at the end made from buffalo milk of course! Next we depart for a wine tasting at a Michelin-rated vineyard Feudi di San Gregorio, followed by dinner at the winery.

“Coast the Coast”

Thursday - We begin the day with breakfast, and then take in breathe-taking views from the Amalfi Coast as we tour and visit Positano. While in this posh seaside beauty, we will sightsee and shop. Lunch will be on your own today, but don't get too full because later we'll be feasting on the courses from tonight's cooking lesson with Rossella and our local Nonna.

“Seize the Day”

Friday - There is a saying in Italian, Dolce far Niente, the sweetness of nothing. That's exactly what is planned for the day. Between breakfast and dinner the day is yours to do whatever you would like in the Amalfi Coast... and whatever your desires are... we will help you make them happen. We have picked out a phenomenal Michelin-rated restaurant in Sorrento, for our last dinner together.

“Come as Guests, Leave as Friends”

Saturday - There will be one final breakfast at the villa and then we depart for the Naples Airport or train station for your return home. If you need assistance making different travel arrangements, we are here to help you.
